BEMS Journal Publishes Critique of E-Field Paper

December 7, 2009

Bioelectromagnetics has posted "Comments" by Louis Slesin, the editor of Microwave News on the call to stop research on power-frequency electric fields by Leeka Kheifets and John Swanson (see "The Real Junk Science of EMFs"). The two electric utility insiders declined the journal's offer to respond. The comments are now on the journal's Web site and will be published in its February 2010 issue.
