The Bolsheviks push their anti-Russia story…

Tonight at 7pm ET on CBS - Sunday. They will push the Russia! Story about Hava Syndrome - with a new twist.

Targeted Justice first reported in January 2018, that the satellite weapons attacki civilians were controlled from Schriever Base near Colorado Springs.

The Deep State wants a global war. Don't fall for these lies. These prostitute-journalists will say anything that their C1A handlers impose. (Project Mockingbi

Reltron/Vircator

The weapon that causes Havana Syndrome is called a Reltron. It is manufactured Fisica Applied Technologies in San Leandro, California and operated by the U.S. Space Force and the C1A, from Schriever Base. More than 200 of these weapons a in orbit. They are rated at 250 million watts of power - you will never find that mu power in a handheld weapon.

This is the same satellite weapon that President Trump calls the "Discombobulat It was used to instantly disable the guards in Venezuela.

Targeted Justice first announced the truth about Schriever Base and the satellite weapons in 2018:

From our website archive - https://web.archive.org/web/20190214200539/https://www.targetedjustice.com/

4 January 2018: We have learned that the Air Force Space Command in Colorado Springs, Colorado is the organization that operates the satellites that are targeting individuals all over the world. If you are a Targeted Individual, anywhere in the world, the person that "pushes the button" to hit you with microwaves, sits at a computer desk located at Schriever Air Force Base. The Air Force Space Command is the largest satellite operations center in the world, with more than 175 satellites under their control. If your family members are being hit with subliminal messages and turned against you - this is the organization that has their GPS coordinates and keeps track of them. General John W. Raymond is the Commander. More details in the TECHNICAL section.

28 February 2018: We have learned - the company that made the microwave weapons for the satellites was probably the Titan Corporation, in San Leandro, California. The company has since been acquired by L-3 Technologies. The Electromagnetic Gun system is called the "Thunderbolt System," and under the patent, it is called the Vircator. This is what hits you with microwave pulses. See the TIMELINE tab on our website. www.DEPS.org

Wow! Thank you for this important information. I knew they had a heart attack gun. Someone I k lived in a condo probably a mile away from this company in San leandro. In 1976, he started feel and had a heart attack at the hospital. The mother and he were divorced and she signed the pap pull the plug after he had been in a coma for around 5 days. I now find out there is no brain deatl according to Dr Robert Byrd. It was the same year they came out with the swine flu vaccine and recalled it because a lot of people died or had adverse reactions. It seems there was foul play s was only in his thirties. Sound familiar?

@Ana Toledo Project mockingbird, Operation Chaos, Project MK Ultra, Cointelpro 2.0 have neve ceased to exist. I'm starting to wonder about this war being started in an effort to maintain the F Act? The timing is just way too suspicious. I would love to hear your thoughts about this.
